FAMILY DENTISTRY IN NORTH VANCOUVER

The people looking after your smile

Family dentistry in North Vancouver: check-ups, hygiene, Invisalign, implants and emergency appointments. Gentle care for nervous patients and direct billing to most insurers.

Dentists who listen first

A principal dentist, a dentist and a registered hygienist, working together for your comfort.

Dr. Priya Sandhu leads our clinic alongside Dr. Mark Ellison and registered dental hygienist Hannah Cho. We take time to listen, explain and go at your pace, for a routine clean or a same-day emergency.

We welcome new patients of every age in North Vancouver, from nervous first-timers to families who've been with us for years.

01

Gentle care, every visit

Routine check-ups, cleaning and hygiene care for families and nervous patients across North Vancouver, with direct billing to most insurers.

What your check-up includes

Full exam

Dr. Sandhu or Dr. Ellison checks your teeth, gums and bite for any changes.

Professional cleaning

Hannah Cho removes plaque and polishes your teeth for a fresh, smooth feel.

Gum health check

We check your gums gently, with no judgment and no surprises.

Honest advice

We talk you through what we see and answer your questions plainly.

02

Little smiles, cared for gently

Friendly check-ups, cleaning and preventive care for babies, kids and teens in North Vancouver, in a calm room with no rush and no judgment.

Care that grows with your child

First visits

A gentle introduction to the dentist, so chairs and toothbrushes feel familiar, not frightening.

Check-ups and cleaning

Regular exams and cleaning to keep growing teeth healthy, explained in words kids understand.

Preventive care

Simple, friendly guidance on brushing, flossing and diet to protect little teeth early.

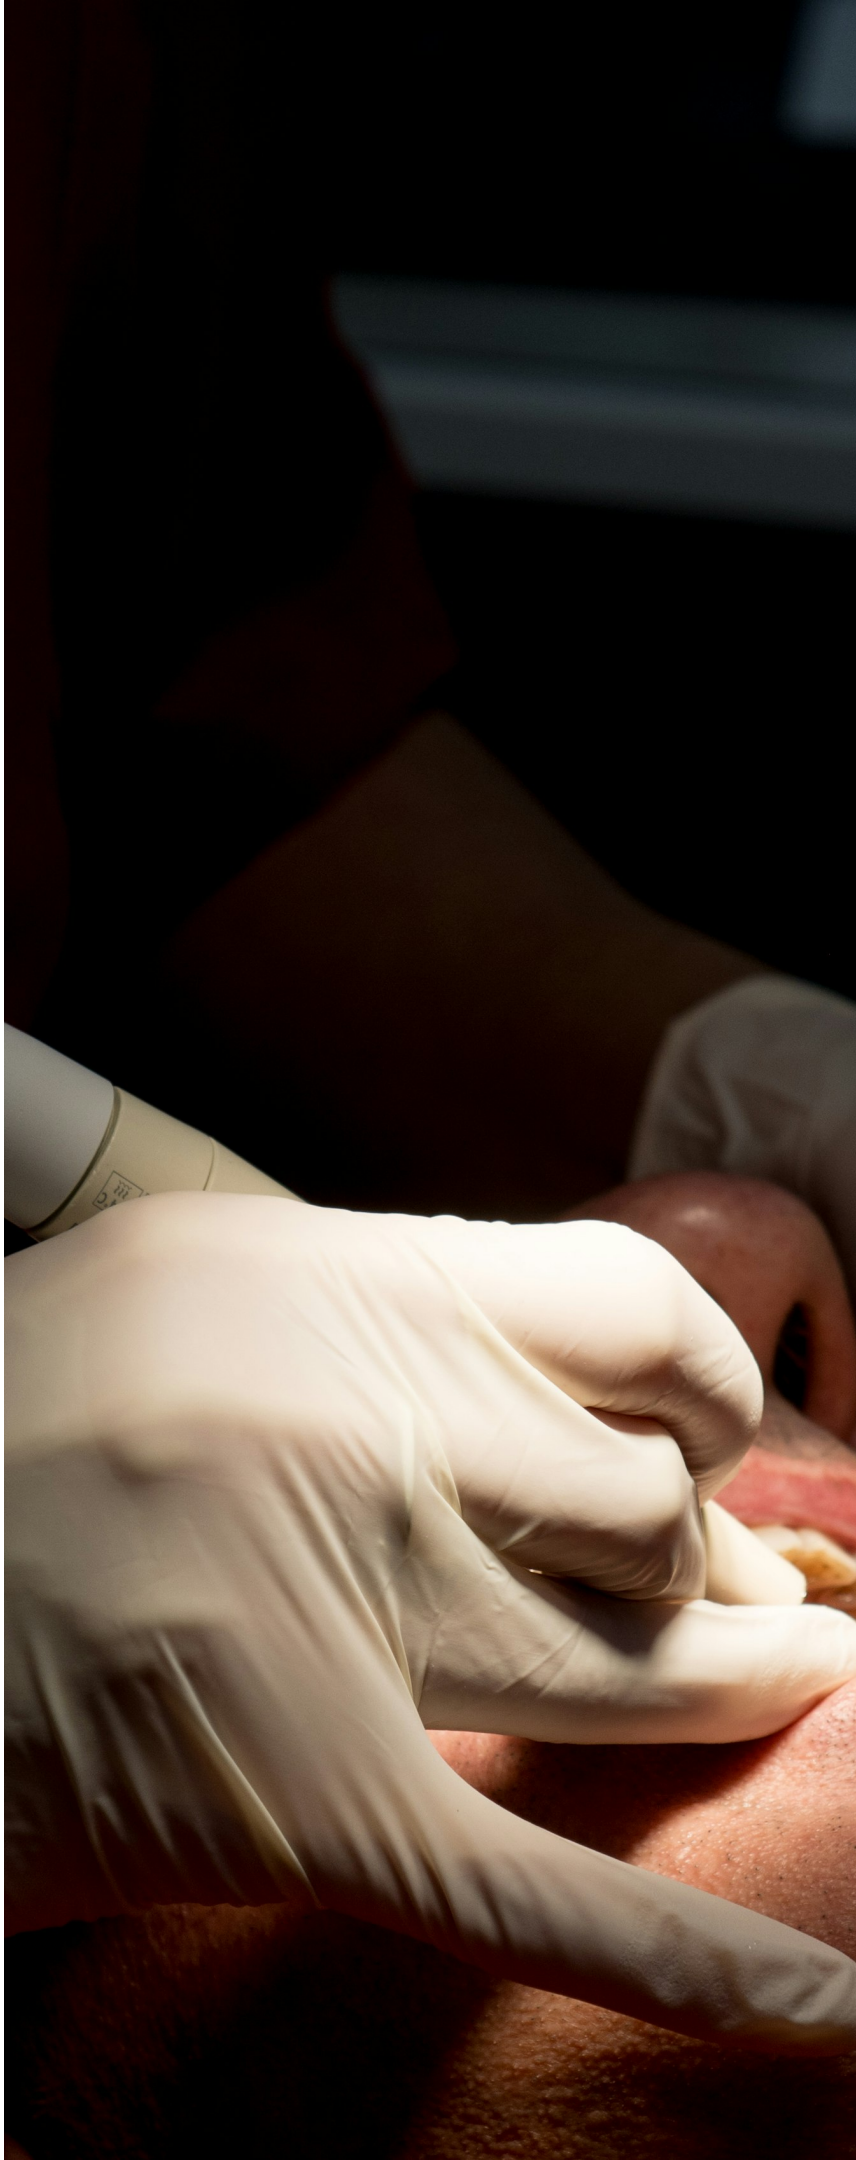
No judgment, ever

A calm, unhurried room for nervous kids, with time for questions and no rushing.

03

A confident smile, clear and comfortable

Clear aligners that straighten teeth without wires or brackets. We build every plan around your life, with gentle guidance at each visit.



What Invisalign treats

Crowded teeth

Aligners shaped to ease crowding gradually

Gaps between teeth

A series of trays designed to close spacing

Clear and removable

Take trays out for eating and brushing

Fits your routine

Short check-ins, scheduled around work and school

Calm, gentle care for every visit

Gentle with nervous patients

We take time to explain every step, so you always know what to expect.

Care for the whole family

From first teeth to wisdom teeth, we see every age in North Vancouver.

Direct billing

We bill most insurance plans directly, so you pay less out of pocket.

Same-day emergencies

Toothache or broken tooth? We offer same-day emergency appointments.
