

WHY MOSS & CLAY

MADE SLOWLY, MADE WELL

I Made in the River Arts District
Thrown and glazed in our Asheville studio

II Safe for everyday cooking
Lead-free, food-safe glazes throughout

III Built for daily use
Dishwasher and microwave safe

IV Open Saturdays
Visit the studio, 10am–4pm

MOSS & CLAY CERAMICS

READY WHEN YOU ARE

BRING HANDMADE HOME

SHOP NOW

(828) 555-0110

abby@mossandclay.com
River Arts District, Asheville, NC
Studio open Sat 10am–4pm

moss-and-clay.sitepages.app

MOSS & CLAY CERAMICS

STONEWARE THROWN AND GLAZED BY HAND

Mugs, bowls, plates and vases made in small batches at our Asheville studio. Food-safe glazes and everyday durability, for home cooks and gift buyers alike.

SHOP NOW

(828) 555-0110

moss-and-clay.sitepages.app

OUR STUDIO

A STUDIO BUILT ON PATIENCE

Moss & Clay Ceramics began as a small studio in Asheville's River Arts District, where each piece is still thrown, trimmed and glazed by hand in small batches. Nothing leaves the kiln until it is right.

NEW FROM THE STUDIO

FRESH FROM THE KILN

Our latest mugs, bowls, plates and vases, glazed in small batches at the studio.

Ridgeline Mug
$38.00

Morning Pour Mug
$44.00

Bud Vase
$32.00

Espresso Cup & Saucer
$34.00

Large Serving Bowl
$120.00

Nesting Bowls, Set of 3
$135.00

BEFORE YOU BUY

QUESTIONS WE HEAR OFTEN

Are your glazes food-safe?

Yes. Every glaze we use is lead-free and food-safe, and every finished piece is dishwasher and microwave safe.

Is each piece really made by hand?

Yes. Every piece is made by hand in our studio, thrown and glazed in small batches, so no two are exactly alike.

Where is your studio?

We're in the River Arts District in Asheville, North Carolina.

Shop now
(828) 555-0110

