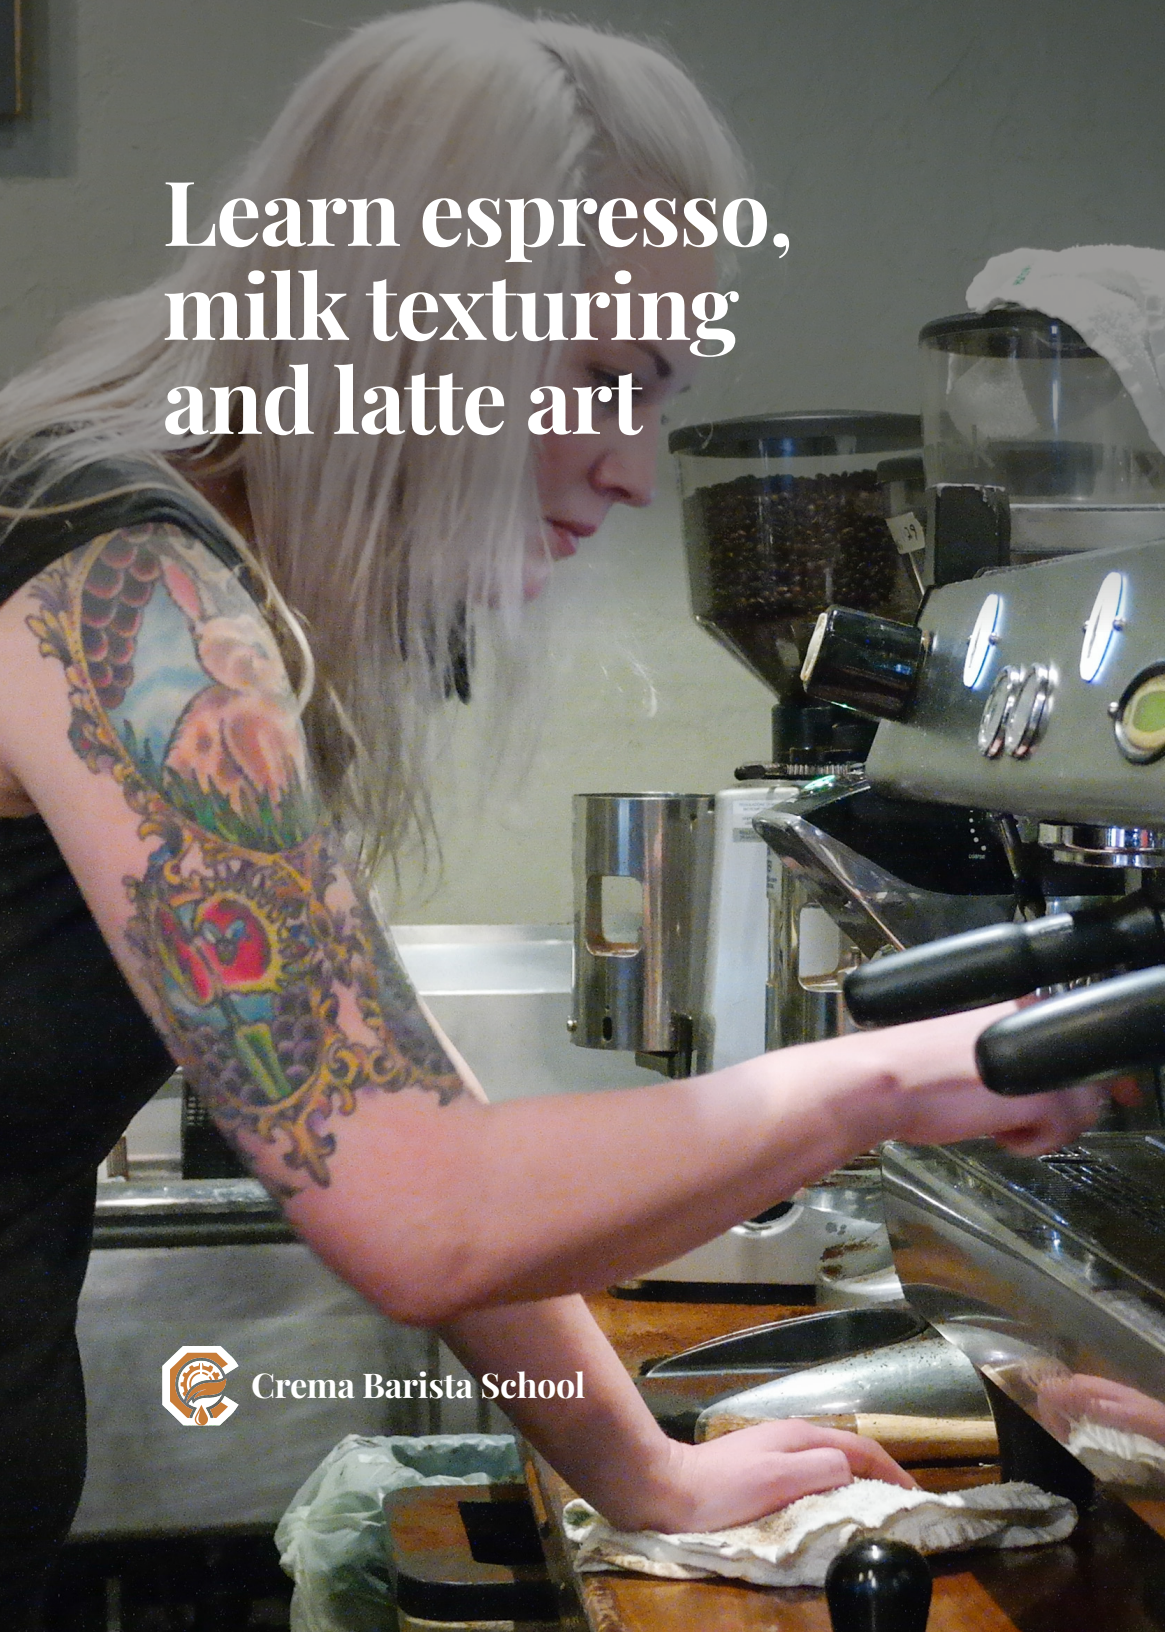
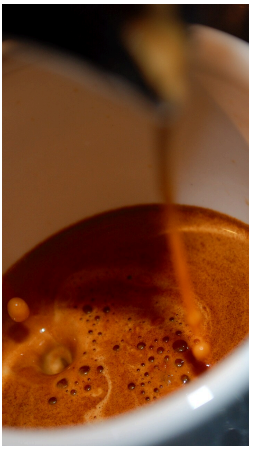
Learn espresso, milk texturing and latte art



Crema Barista School



ONLINE BARISTA COURSES

Taught by working baristas

Crema Barista School began behind the counter at our Collingwood espresso bar, where new staff learned one at a time before every shift. We started filming those sessions so every lesson is checked against a scale and a timer, not by eye.

Taught from a working espresso bar

No studio, no actors, just the machine we pull shots on every day at 112 Smith St.

Crema Barista School runs out of a real espresso bar on Smith St, Collingwood, on the same two-group machine we use to teach every lesson.

We film each pour and pattern as it happens behind the counter, then check it against a scale and a timer before it goes online.

HOW IT WORKS

Choose, enrol, learn

1 Choose a course

2 Enrol online

Sign up any time, day or night, and get straight into the lessons.

3 Learn at your own pace

Questions from new students

What will I learn?

Espresso fundamentals, milk texturing and latte art, the three skills we teach from our Collingwood bar.

How are the lessons filmed?

Every lesson is filmed on a commercial two-group machine at our Collingwood espresso bar and checked against a scale and a timer, not by eye.

Who are the courses for?

Home baristas who want better coffee at home, and new café staff learning to dial in espresso, texture milk and pour latte art.

Can I learn at my own pace?

Yes. The courses are online, so you can start and work through the lessons any time.

Start pulling better shots today

Espresso fundamentals, milk texturing and latte art, taught from our Collingwood bar and ready whenever you are.
