

A GUIDE FROM SEABROOK HOUSE

From first call to dinner by the harbour

What happens from booking to the table in front of you.

Seabrook
House

A quiet kind of luxury above the harbour

We keep twelve rooms above the harbour, nine of them facing the sea, because that view is the whole reason to stay. The coast path starts at our door and the tide sets the rest of the day.

01

A room, a table, a view

Twelve rooms above the harbour, a restaurant open to everyone, and the coast path from our door.

What we offer

Sea-view rooms

Nine of our twelve rooms look straight out over St Ives harbour and the bay beyond.

Restaurant

Open to non-residents as well as guests, serving Cornish produce with a harbour view.

Breakfast

Start the day properly before the coast path from our front door.

Weddings and celebrations

Marry above the harbour, or gather the people you love for a celebration to remember.

Above the harbour, built for staying

Coast path from the door

Step straight onto the South West Coast Path, with St Ives below and the bay ahead.

Restaurant open to all

Our restaurant welcomes non-residents as warmly as our guests, for lunch and dinner.

Dog-friendly rooms

Bring the dog. Several of our rooms are made up with four-legged guests in mind.

Nine rooms with sea views

Twelve rooms in all, nine looking straight out over St Ives harbour.
