

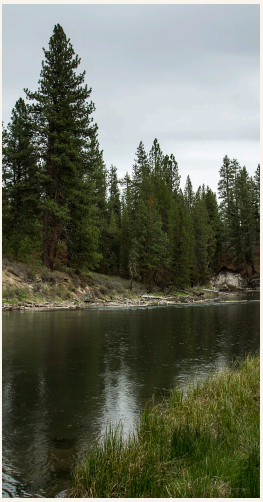
ON THE DESCHUTES RIVER

Campsites and safari tents on the Deschutes River

Tent sites, RV hookups and canvas safari tents twenty minutes from Bend.

Cedar Flats
Campground



ON THE DESCHUTES RIVER

Hosts on the Deschutes River, near Bend

We laid out every site so it backs onto water or pine, then pitched safari tents with real beds for guests who want the river without giving up a mattress.

01

Tent camping on the Deschutes River

Pitch your own tent on a site that backs onto the river or the pines, twenty minutes from Bend.

What the Tent Site includes

Bring your own tent

Pitch your own tent on a level site shaded by pine or open to the river.

River or pine pitch

Every tent site backs onto the Deschutes River or the pine woods.

Close to Bend

Close to town for supplies, far enough for quiet nights outdoors.

Office hours 8am–8pm

Check in at the office, open every day from 8am to 8pm.

02

RV Sites with Hookups, Twenty Minutes from Bend

Pull your rig onto a site that backs onto the river or the pines

What's Included at Your RV Site

RV hookups

Pull in and connect — every RV site includes hookups for an easy stay.

River backdrop

Many sites sit right on the Deschutes River, with the water just steps away.

Pine backdrop

Other sites back onto tall pines, with shade and quiet all around.

03

Safari Tent with Real Beds on the River

A canvas tent with a real bed, a wood deck and the Deschutes River or pines right outside. Nature, without sleeping on the ground.

What's Inside Your Safari Tent

Real beds

Sleep in a real bed under canvas, not an air mattress on the ground.

River or pine setting

Every safari tent backs onto the Deschutes River or the pine woods.

Framed canvas tent

A sturdy safari tent with a wood deck, built to stand up to the outdoors.

Dates and rates

See current nights and rates before you book your stay.

Why camp at Cedar Flats

Water's edge or pines

Every site at Cedar Flats backs onto the Deschutes River or the pines.

Real beds in the tents

Our safari tents come with real beds, not just a mattress on the ground.

Twenty minutes from Bend

Close enough for a quick trip to town, far enough to feel away from it.

Office open 8am–8pm

Staff on hand from morning to evening for check-in and questions.

AROUND THE CAMPGROUND

The river, the pines, the tents

Tent site on the Deschutes River

RV site with hookups among the pines

Safari tent with a real bed

Questions guests ask

What's the difference between a tent site

Tent sites suit your own tent and gear, RV sites have hookups, and safari tents are canvas tents with real beds already set up.

How far is Cedar Flats from Bend?

Twenty minutes from Bend, on the Deschutes River.

What are your office hours?

The office is open 8am–8pm.

Do the safari tents really have beds?

Yes. Unlike a tent on the ground, every safari tent has a real bed.

Your campsite on the river is waiting

Tent sites, RV hookups and safari tents with real beds, twenty minutes from Bend.

(541) 555-0123

cedar-flats-campground-u425i.sitepages.app
molly@cedarflats.com
61000 River Rd, Bend, OR 97702

Cedar Flats Campground