The Foundry Cowork

THE FOUNDRY COWORK, ANCOATS, MANCHESTER

The people behind The Foundry

The Foundry Cowork occupies a converted mill on Old Mill Street in Ancoats. The front desk is staffed through the week, so there's always someone to greet you, sign in a guest or point you to a meeting room. Members come for the hot desks, dedicated desks and meeting rooms, and stay for the fibre broadband and the phone booths on every floor when a call needs quiet. It's a place to work, not just a place to sit.

01

Work flexibly in a converted Ancoats mill

Turn up, plug in and get on with your day.

What a hot desk gets you

Any desk, any day

Settle in wherever suits you, from a quiet corner to a spot by the window.

Fibre broadband

Fast, reliable fibre broadband at every desk, ready as soon as you sit down.

Phone booths on every floor

Step away from the desks for a call or a video meeting, without booking a room.

Staffed front desk

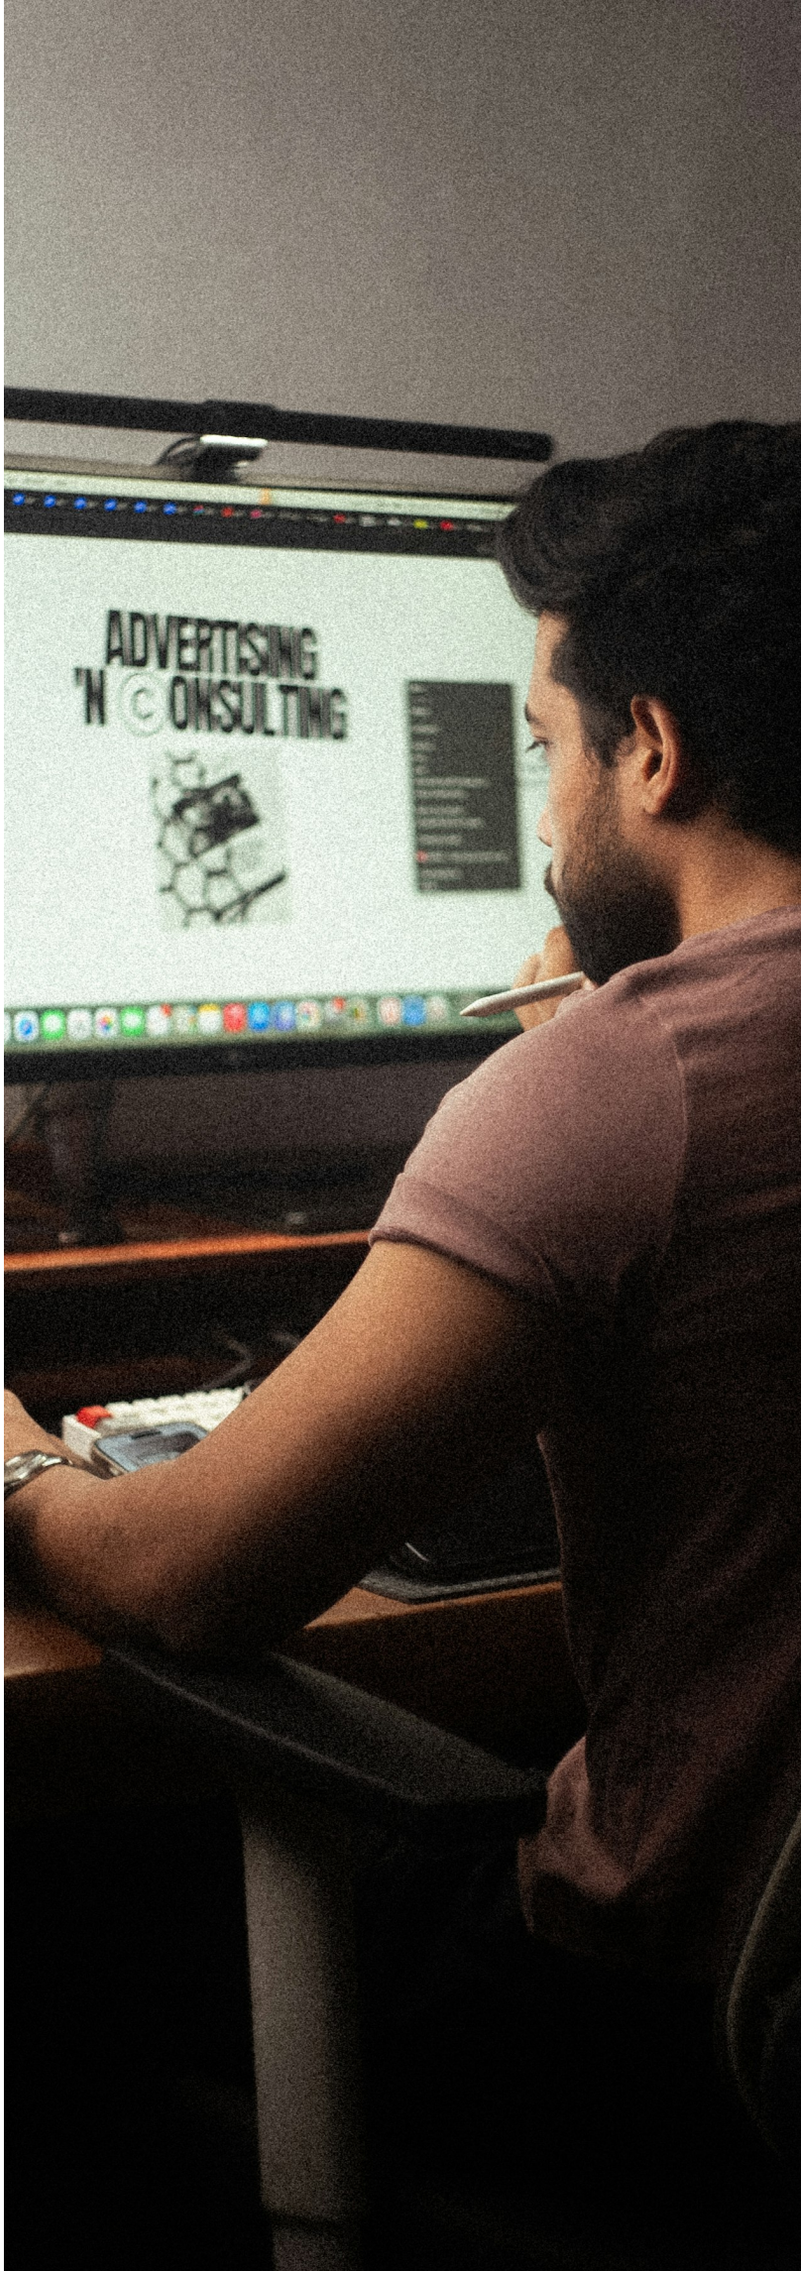

Someone on hand to greet your guests, take deliveries and help with your day.

02

A desk of your own, every day

A dedicated desk suits freelancers and small teams who want the same desk every day

What a dedicated desk gives you

Your own desk

A permanent desk in the shared studio, set aside for you each time you come in.

Fibre broadband

Fast, reliable fibre broadband at every desk, on every floor.

Staffed front desk

A staffed front desk to greet you and your visitors, Monday to Friday, 8am to 7pm.

Phone booths

Phone booths on every floor, for calls and video meetings away from your desk.

03

Meeting rooms inside a converted mill

Bookable rooms for client meetings, interviews and workshops, with fibre broadband and a staffed front desk to greet your guests.

Everything a meeting needs

Rooms for any meeting

Space for client meetings, interviews, workshops and team catch-ups in Ancoats.

Fibre broadband

Fast, reliable connection for video calls and screen sharing.

Staffed front desk

A team on hand to welcome your guests and point them to the right room.

Phone booths on every floor

Step out for a private call before or after your meeting.

Built for focused work

Fibre broadband
